To our customers and friends of the past, as well as those we still wish to make, a word of greeting: We, as well as you, are glad that the Great World War is at an end. On account of that conflict we are not sending out a catalogue this spring, but issue this brief circular. In the past two years the nurserymen troubles have been many as well as yours. We have fared as well as the majority. We are offering this stock at this time without any apology as to prices, as you know it has taken much more to produce the same article in the past two years than formerly. Our stock is of the best. Our service will be the same.

We can ship by Pennsylvania Railroad and the B. & O. Railroad.

Your order with one-fourth amount of same will hold stock till shipping time, when you can send balance. Your check or post office money order will be all right with us.

Order early, as there will be a shortage in many items on account of a very dry season last summer.

Thanking you for past favors, as well as anything you may have for us in the future, I am,

Yours very truly,

CHAS. McDONALD.
